

WHO HAS ANY OF THESE 78rpm RECORDS ?

Turkish researcher is looking for a recording of the Turkish kanto “Yeni yeni bir sevdaya düştüm”.

It was recorded several times between 1909 and 1926 (see the discography hereunder).

Which collector can come up with any of the following records?

A picture of the relevant record label will be greatly appreciated.

Mr. Recep Altınay from İzmir was the first to react to our appeal.

Mr. Altınay owns a well-known music shop in Karşıyaka, İzmir, called “Dünden bugüne”.

On 11 August 2018 Mr. Altınay informed me he had a version of the song on the ODEON label and offered to send a picture of the label and a recording!

The Odeon version was not listed in the small discography I had compiled so far.

Of course, I had consulted Cemal Ünlü’s online database of Turkish 78rpm recordings (<http://tasplak.pankitap.com>), but had only found a FAVORITE recording of the song. Side number 1-55468. This information apparently came from a Favorite catalogue, since the corresponding matrix number was not mentioned.

Later on I discovered the ODEON version was in the database after all, but could somehow only be accessed by typing in the name of the singer: “İhsan”. The source was an undated Odeon catalogue (Catalogue Général des Disques Double Face Odeon – Berlin) and, indeed, on page 20 it said: No. d’ord. 223: “Canto, Jeni jeni bir sevda” by İhsan Ef..

The Odeon side number of the actual recording was unknown, since no copy of this record had ever been sighted.

Thanks to Recep Altınay we now have the side number: 54825.

And, what is more, he kindly sent me a picture of the label and an mp3 recording.

So now the first recording has been located.
It is to be hoped that soon other versions of the song will turn up.

We are especially interested in tracing the Victor record 63072-B, Yeni yeni bir sevdaya douchdoun, by Ibrahim Efendi, an American release of the Gramophone Company original G.C. 6-12234 (see the discography above).
