Only 545 (52533) and 557 (52524) are wax recordings and have dates (recording dates?) on the labels.

They are in the ITALIAN catalogue (prefix: 5).

The others are zinc recordings and are in the ORIENTAL catalogue (prefix: 1).

They are all singlesided records.

This recording was made by Franz Hampe during a recording session in Vienna (10 inch: 734-921 z).

Lina Abravanel made several recordings during this Vienna session

ABARBANEL, LINA (1879–1963), star of European light opera and Broadway doyenne. Born in Berlin to a prominent Sephardi family active in the professional theater, Abarbanell debuted as Adele in the Berlin Court Opera's production of Die Fledermaus in 1904, at the age of 15 (Huh? 25 you mean!) As a young woman, she toured European concert halls and theaters, establishing a career as a vocalist and actress. She won especial renown in the world of Viennese operetta, where luminaries of the scene, such as Franz Lehar and Oscar Straus, composed works for her. She spent a season in New York with the Metropolitan Grand Opera in 1905, appearing as Hänsel in the American premiere of Humperdinck's Hänsel und Gretel. Abarbanell and her husband, Edward Goldbeck, an editorialist and cultural commentator, and their young daughter settled in Chicago soon after, returning to New York after World War I.

In America, Abarbanell introduced the Viennese light musical repertoire to popular audiences and won fame and critical plaudits with starring roles in Lehar's The Merry Widow, among other works. A fashionable, graceful, and vivacious personality, she helped popularize songs and dances of the musicals and light operas in which she appeared. With her husband, she hosted a weekly salon in her Chicago home for European and American artists and writers. Abarbanell essentially supported the family through her theater career, seeing them through bankruptcy in 1921. After the death of her husband in 1934, she transformed herself from performer to producer and director. Her daughter Eva Goldbeck, a fiction writer and reviewer who published in periodicals such as the New Republic, died in 1935 at the age of 34. Abarbanell maintained a close relationship with her son-in-law, the composer Marc Blitzstein (The Cradle Will Rock), for the rest of her life. She established a successful second career as casting director for Blitzstein and others, in theater (Porgy and Bess) and in film (Carmen Jones), and remained actively involved in the theater world until her death from heart failure shortly after her 84th birthday.

Mark the Music: The Life and Work of Marc Blitzstein

Possibly in September 1903, since the Turkish Hymn was played every year in the Viennese Sephardic synagogue in honour of the birthday of Sultan Abdulhamit II (1842-1918) on 21 September 1942.

Reigned from 1876 to 1909.

Cataloguing these recordings was not done very accurately or in accordance with the cataloguing principles of The Gramophone Company. Salim Bey'in Hicaz Peşrevi (653 e) is an instrumental but has been allocated a male solo voice catalogue number: 2-12607.

Nicolo is going to solve the name of the unknown female singer (692-700 e) on the basis of page 50 in 1905 catalogue (she has a copy of that page). No, there is no name.

Record copy *X-102653 (1392 r) and *X-102658 (1409 r) (red/white stripes) has (identical, of course) coupling numbers “1” at 8 o’clock.

This numbers “1” corresponds to the same record in an (undated) Zonophone catalogue (containing # 1-322).

This catalogue does not refer to the name Zonophone, but has the round logo (surrounded by flags) and at the top of the front page an Ottoman text which is also on the red/white striped labels (Nicolo imdat 7).

1756 r and 1776 r have coupling number (243) on the labels

The introduction of allocating coupling numbers (referring to an actual paper catalogue) must have started when the new red/white striped Zonophone label was introduced (when? May/June 1910, see coupling cards).

The term/name “DISQUE POUR ZONOPHONE” was dropped (from both record and catalogues) and only a white round logo with “Gramophone Company” in golden arabic characters (calligraphy) remained (flanked by two smaller logos with two Turkish flags).

This logo was already on earlier Zonophones as a kind of white stamp.

See my Favorite article page 180.

Only the catalogue numbers on the records point to their being Zonophone records. Afterwards a separate sub-label was abolished altogether.

Imitation of Favorite’s striped label? Or other way round? Corona Record also.

Vogel complains that the old Zonophone catalogue recorded between 1905 and late 1907) is out of date and does not sell any more.

In other words, this covers:

1905 Constantinople Max Hampe

1906 Constantinople Max Hampe

1907 Constantinople Charles Scheuplein

1907 Athens Fred Gaisberg

Vogel proposes label change for old Zonos and new coupling (letters 7/8/1909, 20/9/1909, 17/11/1909).

The names of the 4 musicians are not known; nor is it known if the quartet consisted of Greeks living in Egypt or if they were a Greek musical ensemble from Constantinople, Smyrna or Athens which happened to be touring Egypt. The recordings "Kalamatianos" and "Sirtos Politikos" were also issued in USA on the Victor label (Vi 63514-A/B).

What instruments are being played?

Panayotis Kounadis has 12029b/12030b and 12031b/12032 b (2 records)

This is not a quartet (sandouri, violin, cello (at least the 4 recordings Kounadis has)

Unless the other recordings feature a fourth instrument....

The numbers in the 7th column (1-110) refer to the coupling/order numbers in the September 1909 Gramophone Company Ltd catalogue (Abravanel, Capouano & Benveniste – Salonique). They are not found on record labels.

The recording dates 26 and 27 March 1909 may not be as exact as they are presented here. On the original triplicate sheets it says:

REPORT OF RECORDS RECORDED by F. W. Gaisberg for Alexandria (seat of the sub-branch) during Week Ended Mar 26 1909 and Mar 27 1909.

It is possible that these recordings were made during the week 22 (Monday) and 27 (Saturday) March 1909.

Kerize in 1909 catalogue

Also in other (Zonophone) catalogue p. 22 as “Guiriz”:

X 102734, X 102735, X 102736, X 102737 by Chnork Efendi

Keriz = party with music and dance (with gypsy connotations).

A kind of ‘generic’ term used for a certain type of song or musical style. In GRAMOPHONE COMPANY catalogues transliterated as ‘kerisse’, ‘guérisse’, ‘guiriz’ or ‘gheriz’.

ATHENS

May/June(?) 1909

Υποψήφιος Βουλευτής

(Iropsifios Vouleftis)

{{Σπυρίδων Ξύνδας (Spiridhon Ksindas)}} (1812-1896)

Στέλλα Κοκκίνη (σοπράνο) & Δ. Μιζούρας (= Δημήτριος Μήτσουρας)

(Stélla Kokkíni, soprano & D. Mizzouras)

Δημήτριος Μήτσουρας went to the USA in 1911

Αγνωστο παραμένει τι ώθησε τον Αθηναίο Δημήτριο Μήτσουρα να ακολουθήσει το 1911 το πλήθος των φτωχών επαρχιωτών που αναζητούσαν μια καλύτερη τύχη στην άλλη μεριά του Ατλαντικού. Και προκαλεί ερωτήματα γιατί ο Μήτσουρας προτού φύγει για την Αμερική ήταν αναγνωρισμένος μουσικός και τραγουδιστής με σημαντική καριέρα.

Αγνωστα επίσης παραμένουν τα στοιχεία της οικογενειακής του κατάστασης, ακόμη και η ημερομηνία του θανάτου του! Αγνοημένος δυστυχώς παραμένει και από όλους τους Ελληνοαμερικανούς ιστορικούς οι οποίοι δεν χάνουν ευκαιρία να προβάλουν κάθε μικρό ή μεγάλο αστέρι του Χόλιγουντ και μόνο με μια υποψία ελληνικής καταγωγής. Για τον Δ. Μήτσουρα ούτε λέξη.

SEE FOLLOWING CHAPTER!!!

13514 b	2-14358 (72)	SALONICA	June 1909	Tuna Edirne'nin [.....?] hep yeşildir	Ramazan Efendi & Zahid Efendi	X-104699
13508 b	6-12763 (59)	SALONICA	June 1909	Edirnenin [.....?] zarif olur	Zahid Efendi

It looks as if in both titles something is missing

For SALONICA (II) there are no triplicate sheets

13532 b - 13547 b untraced. Probably not used.

The numbers in the 7th column (1-110) refer to the coupling/order numbers in the September 1909 Gramophone Company Ltd catalogue (Abravanel, Capouano & Benveniste – Salonique). They are not found on record labels.

The recording dates 26 and 27 March 1909 may not be as exact as they are presented here. On the original triplicate sheets it says:

REPORT OF RECORDS RECORDED by F. W. Gaisberg for Alexandria (seat of the sub-branch) during Week Ended Mar 26 1909 and Mar 27 1909.

It is possible that these recordings were made during the week 22 (Monday) and 27 (Saturday) March 1909.

On Menikali label it says X-104447 = mistake. Should be X-4-104447 (show image Menios on ANDY stick) 13522 b

[Po/Op Di]/13473 from an 14 April 1922 advertisement in Atlantis (Greek newspaper in the USA) in which 10 recordings by Petros Maneas are listed (source: Maria Kapkidi).

In this ad the label (Polyphon or Opera Disc) is not mentioned.

Coupling of [Po/Op Di]/13475 unknown (probably 2372 y or 2379 y)

Als ik de coupling numbers in kolom 2 weghaal (het overwegen waard!) kan de kolom CAT NO (en REC LOC, REC DATE en TITLE) iets smaller gemaakt worden en ARTIST(S) iets breder zodat Sideri en Horos op de zelfde regel kunnen.

These 52 Greek recordings - being the end of the Cairo/Alexandria session - were probably recorded in January 1914.

In all 464 recordings were made, 52 of them Greek.

A catalogue which lists the 1914 recordings has not surfaced yet.

From the few available coupling numbers we may conclude that this second catalogue must at least have contained coupling numbers 0174 – 0181 and 0573 – 0583.

Why were these new series split into two ??? (just as was done with the preceding catalogue: 01 – 0173 and 0501 - 0572)

First part of 1913-1914 catalogue (pp. 3-23):

01 – 0173 (1909/1910/1911/1912) matrices perhaps already at Hayes

Second part of 1913-1914 catalogue (pp. 27-35):

0501 – 0572 (1904/1905/1906/1907) matrices perhaps still in Hannover and therefore HMV 039, 096, 0540, 0543 from Victor?
